Prospectus 2025

The Beginning

Founded in 1954, Auxilium College is the first women's college of Vellore District, committed to the education and empowerment of young women. It is a Catholic minority institution established and administered by the Salesian Sisters. Auxilium has the legacy of quality education as its guiding principle for seventy years. With unstinted efforts to uplift the lives of women, Auxilium is reliving the dream of its Founder Mother Cesira Gallina, an Italian who sowed the seeds of knowledge and virtue in the Vellore soil.

Vision

To educate young women, especially the underprivileged, to become empowered and responsible leaders of integrity.

Mission

To provide quality higher education to economically and socially disadvantaged students.

Goal

To produce in a Salesian atmosphere, intellectually enlightened, spiritually inspired, emotionally balanced, morally upright, socially committed, accomplished - in a word - integrally formed young women who will be agents of social transformation globally.

Salesian Pedagogy

Auxilium College emulates the Preventive System of Don Bosco, that upholds the mandate of accompanying young people towards discernment of what is just and right in life.
